Re: Cazarez v. T&T 130 Pizza Corp., 20-cv-5545 (RA)

Your Honor,

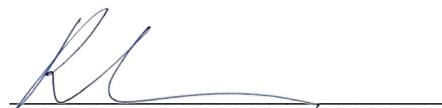

Plaintiff writes to respectfully request that he be permitted to file his default judgment motion against the Defendants on or before this Friday June 18th, 2021. The current due date is June 15th, 2021.

Apparently, the Defendants are not going to avail themselves of the generous extensions of time and courtesies extended to them in order to appear. And, thus, Plaintiff intends now to move forward with the default motion against them.

The undersigned has a bench trial in the EDNY before Judge Cogan that is going forward on June 15th, 2021 and June 16th, 2021. The undersigned would greatly appreciate a bit more time to prepare and review the contents of the default judgment motion before filing.

Application granted.

SO ORDERED.

Hon. Ronnie Abrams
